

COMMERCIAL

With a long history of success in the industry, First Connecticut Capital is intimately familiar with the requirements of commercial property construction.

Though the majority of our business is directed to the residential market, we also provide financing for a select group of commercial enterprises—from individual buildings to multi-unit developments.

For an analysis of the feasibility of your commercial project, contact First Connecticut Capital and arrange an appointment so that we can review in detail the proposal you have in mind and let you know if it meets the commercial

